

1950

Don Feaster founded Feaster Foods, a regional industrial brokerage company

DIVISION OF WESTIN FOODS

The Westin Family acquired Feaster Foods from original founder, Don Feaster

Westin Inc., purchased Robert's Dairy

westin foods

Platte Valley Foods is acquired (from Robert's Dairy); Westin Foods, a holding company was formed

Westin Foods acquires Wagner Juice

Mario Olive Company & InterOlivia is acquired from Beatrice Foods

Great American Appetizers (a manufacturer of breaded vegetables), was acquired

Albert's

Albert's Fine Foods famous for their salad dressings and sauces is added to the Westin portfolio

1968

1975

1979

1981

1984

1990

1998

2002

Albert's Fine Foods merged with Ott's Food

2004

Ott's / Albert's was sold

Albert's

Great American Appetizers; the Wahoo Appetizers brand was sold and the business relocated to Idaho

2006

Brookfield Farms brand is acquired, Westin Packaged Meats is formed

2008

Mae's Health & Wellness (Superberries brand) featuring Aroniaberry products was acquired & Westin Health & Wellness was formed

Mario Olive Company & A. Camacho, Inc., merge to form Mario Camacho Foods

2012

Dominex offers vegan/vegetarian Eggplant products and is added to the Westin Health & Wellness portfolio

2013

Shelby County Cookers

Westin Packaged Meats sells one of its production facilities, Shelby County Cookers to Monogram Food Solutions

Westin Foods made a significant investment in Monogram Food Solutions

2015

Westin Foods sells its ownership in Mario Camacho Foods back to A. Camacho, Inc. (a Spanish based company)

2019

Mr. Dell Foods, a beloved consumer brand of shredded hash browns is acquired.

